Q.30 In November, there will be an amendment on the ballot to amend Missouri's constitution. This amendment will establish a right to make decisions about reproductive health care, including abortion and contraceptives, remove Missouri's ban on abortion, allow regulation of reproductive health care for the health of patient, require the government not to discriminate in government programs, and allow abortion to be restricted or banned after fetal viability except to protect the life of the mother. State governmental entities estimate no costs or savings, but unknown impact. Local governmental entities estimate costs of at least $51,000 annually in reduced tax revenues. Opponents estimate a potentially significant loss to state revenue. Would you vote yes or no on this amendment?
